

SAMPLING AND TESTING

MICRO-CREDENTIAL SUMMARY

Title	Sampling and Testing Micro-Credential
Level	3	Credits	8
Purpose	The purpose of this micro-credential is to provide the water services industry with individuals who hold the knowledge and skills to carry out sampling and testing for drinking water, wastewater or trade waste water services. This micro-credential can be used by those who work in, and alongside, the water services industry, such as regional council staff and contractors, laboratory staff, treatment operators, small supply operators, schools, and other relative sectors e.g tourism, housing developments and agriculture.
Outcome	On successful completion of this micro-credential, learners/ākonga will be able to collect and test samples in line with compliance requirements. Learners/ākonga will have knowledge of: • Operating within compliance requirements in water services Learners/ākonga will have the skills to: • Carry out sampling and testing for water services
Components & Learning Outcomes	This micro-credential has two components: • Carry out sampling and testing for water services • Recognise compliance requirements in water services On successful completion learners/ākonga will be able to: • Take samples for water services • Test samples for water services • Recognise compliance requirements in water services

Standards	Skill Standard L3-1 Recognise compliance requirements in water services (Level 3, 3 credits) Skill Standard L3-E1 Carry out sampling and testing for water services (Level 3, 5 credits)
Delivery	This micro-credential is designed to be delivered either by distance, face to face or blended. This delivery model is flexible to respond to the different potential users to best support progression through the micro-credential depending on the individuals context.